

Helpful Words Listening Badge

Make it with your hands. Practise it with your heart.

WHAT YOU NEED

- paper or cardstock •
- colours • scissors •
- tape or a safety pin
- with adult help

MAKE IT

1. Colour the badge and circle the helpful sentence.
2. Cut out the badge on the solid cut line.
3. Cross out the noisy words you want to let go.
4. Wear or display the badge where you will see it.

CRAFT TEMPLATE

Cut solid-outlined parts. Fold only where the fold guide appears.

Helpful or noisy? Circle the helpful words and fold the tab behind the badge.

Try again. You can learn.
Quit now. That was silly.

Blue dashed line = fold. Red dashed line = cut.

WHY THIS CRAFT MATTERS

Ganesha's ears teach us to keep helpful words and let noisy words fall away.

When you hear mixed messages, point to your badge and keep the helpful part.
